

Gourmet Roses™

Gourmet Roses™ is a series of tiny mini roses that can be used for cooking. The petals, whole flowers and buds are perfect for edible decorations or as an ingredient in exclusive dishes and drinks.

The Gourmet Roses are not just beautiful - they also have lots of symbolic value. They express both love and exclusivity, which makes them very suitable for weddings, anniversaries and birthdays, as well as all the special days in life where you want to serve something extraordinary.

The Gourmet Roses concept can be used by licensed growers, and Roses Forever offers both logos and other marketing materials ready to use for promotional activities.

- Grown by licensed producers
- Sold as cutted rose flowers in a box
- Durable up to 3 weeks
